THE REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

Business to be Pushed.—Senator Harris Accepted as Speaker Pro Tem.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The repub-lican senators held a caucus this evening for the purpose of determining what course should be adopted with the view of reaching action on the Robertson nomination and other contested cases, and thus securing an early adjournment of the senate, after which senators spoke in favor of leavcontroversy concerning it. Several other members of the caucus, while not a wise or desirable act on the part of the president, took the ground, nevertheless, that as the issue had been made for party interests, and demand-ed that it should be met by sustain-ing the administration. Various urged the confirmation of the nominaupon the new tombstone which has just been raised above the remains of our two departed statesmen. Special diagram:
